CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment is offered by Senator Cavanaugh. It is a four page amendment. Another amendment offered by Senator Cavanaugh.

PRESIDENT WHELAN PRESIDING

PRESIDENT: Senator Dickinson, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR DICKINSON: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, would it be appropriate at this time to have someone go into the meeting in effect of the Resolution that has been placed on our desk since we have already had three members that have apparently gone without having been formerly excused by the Legislature. I think we ought to know what they are doing and what authority they have to act in the name of the Legislature. Now, you look a little puzzled, Mr. President. We do have a Resolution on our desk concerning the trip to California which involves the Nebraska Legislature. I think we ought to talk about it. I don't know whose Resolution it is.

PRESIDENT: Is the Resolution up for discussion?

SENATOR DICKINSON: Well, I am attempting to bring it up for discussion, sir.

PRESIDENT: Is there a motion to adopt the Resolution.

SENATOR DICKINSON: Not to my knowledge. There is no name on the Resolution. I don't think there is.

PRESIDENT: All right. There is a motion on the desk. Could the Chair have a copy of the Resolution, please?

SENATOR BURBACH: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, this is not on the calendar. It is not on the agenda but it is of such urgency because we have three of our members and others are leaving so I think it is the proper time to discuss it and so I would ask that we leave the agenda just momentarily and discuss this Resolution at hand.

PRESIDENT: The Chair will consider that an order of the Speaker that the order be deviated from for purposes of taking up this Resolution. So, Senator Simpson, is it your purpose to move the amendment or the Resolution? The Speaker ordered it and they have the right to overrule the Speaker but...

CLERK: All right. Legislative Resolution #51. Read.
